

Summary of Cover

Commercial Combined & Media Liability
15 Sections of Cover – Property, Liability,
Production & Media
Including new Management Liability and
Cyber sections

WORDING: TMHCC Media Combined 0526

SUMMARY OF COVER

Important notice / basis of this summary. This Summary of Cover is intended as a high-level guide only. It does not replace the policy wording, schedule, endorsements or any specific terms, conditions, exclusions, limits or excesses that apply. Cover is provided only for those Sections shown as operative in the Schedule and is subject in all respects to the full policy wording. You should read the policy, Schedule and any endorsements for full details of the terms and conditions. This Policy is a commercial insurance product designed for business customers and is not suitable for consumers.

WHO THIS POLICY IS DESIGNED FOR

The Media and Music Combined Insurance Policy 0526 is a non-consumer commercial package designed for businesses operating in the media, music, production, events and creative sectors (and associated commercial activities). It combines property, business interruption, liability, production, media and management/cyber covers in one policy, underwritten by Tokio Marine HCC (with Section 13 underwritten by ARAG and Section 15 provided under the CyberGuard™ wording).

HOW THIS POLICY IS STRUCTURED

The policy is made up of 15 Sections. General Policy Definitions, Conditions and Exclusions apply across the policy; each Section also has its own specialist definitions, extensions, conditions, exclusions and limits. Only the Sections shown as operative in the Schedule are in force, and all cover is subject to the sums insured, limits, sub-limits and excesses stated in the Schedule.

- Sonic Bang; Terrorism (non-Terrorism Sections); War & Kindred Risks

KEY CONDITIONS AND CLAIMS OBLIGATIONS

- Notification of a claim (Sections 1–11): the Insured must notify the Insurer as soon as practicable. This is an obligation – it is NOT, in the final wording, a blanket condition precedent for Sections 1–11.
- Notification to the Police following theft, attempted theft or malicious damage is a Condition Precedent.
- Admission of Liability: the Insured must not make any admission of liability, promise, payment, compensation, offer, negotiation or settlement of a claim without the Insurer's written consent. In the final wording this is an ordinary condition (not a condition precedent): the Insurer may only rely on a breach to the extent its position has been prejudiced by the breach.
- Proof of Ownership and Value: following theft or loss, the Insurer may request reasonable evidence of ownership and value for any high value item or any item insured on an Agreed Value basis (e.g. invoices, valuations, photographs, serial numbers). An affected item's claim may not be paid where the Insured fails to provide the evidence reasonably requested (item-level – not a blanket forfeiture).
- The Insured must take reasonable steps to mitigate loss and to maintain protections/security.
- Property Sections are subject to Protection & Maintenance conditions (fire protection, minimum security, intruder alarm and unoccupancy) – several are conditions precedent.
- Sections 12–15 operate on a claims-made basis and have their own notification and claims conditions (e.g. 28-day notification for Media and Production Indemnity; separate notice provisions for Management Liability and Cyber).
- Cover is subject to Average (underinsurance) and to payment of premium.

- Media Liability and Production Indemnity (Sections 12–13 PI route): notify within 28 days – PI Claims, piclaims@tmhcc.com.
- Commercial Legal Expenses (Section 13): claims handled by ARAG – report during the Period of Insurance and as soon as the Insured is aware.
- Management Liability and Cyber (Sections 14–15): notify in accordance with the Section's own notice provisions, during the Period of Insurance (or Discovery Period where applicable).
- Theft, attempted theft or malicious damage must also be reported to the Police (condition precedent).

IMPORTANT BROKER / INSURED NOTES

- This summary must be read together with the policy wording, Schedule and any endorsements, which together set out the cover, limits, sub-limits, excesses and conditions that apply.
- Only the Sections shown as operative in the Schedule are in force.
- Several Sections are written on a claims-made basis – timely notification is essential and is a condition precedent in many cases.
- This summary reflects the FINAL wording. Section 12 (Media Liability) enhancements under consideration (e.g. a Schedule-selectable worldwide / USA-Canada option) are NOT yet part of cover and require legal/underwriting sign-off; the current Section 12 position (worldwide excluding USA/Canada unless the Schedule states otherwise) applies.
- Check sums insured and limits carefully – the policy is subject to Average (underinsurance).
- This is a non-consumer commercial contract and is not suitable for consumers.
